June 2026

Dear Colleagues,

The Guernsey County CARES Network (Coordinating Access to Resources, Education, and Services), in partnership with the East Central Ohio Educational Service Center (ECOESC), is committed to strengthening communication, connection, and collaboration among the many agencies that support children, families, seniors, and caregivers across Guernsey County. Together, we have built strong relationships through coordination and shared efforts, and we are excited to continue growing that work in meaningful ways.

As part of this effort, one of our key goals is to increase public awareness and improve access to the wide range of services available in our community. We know that when families—and those who serve them—can easily find and connect with the right supports, it leads to stronger outcomes for everyone. To support this goal, the CARES Network has partnered with Stone Creek Marketing & Management to develop a comprehensive community resource guide—a user-friendly Directory of Services designed to help residents quickly locate the supports they need. In addition, this directory will serve as a valuable tool for service providers, helping agencies more easily connect their clients with other local resources and supports. This guide will be available in both print and digital formats, increasing visibility and accessibility across the county. Stone Creek Marketing has successfully developed similar guides in neighboring communities, including Tuscarawas County.

In the coming weeks, a representative from Stone Creek Marketing will be reaching out to invite your agency to be included in this directory. We strongly encourage your participation, as your organization plays an important role in serving our community. Directory listings are provided at no cost to partner agencies. Agencies also have the option to purchase advertisement space if they choose, with additional details available in the attached information.

We would greatly appreciate you sharing this opportunity with colleagues and other organizations who also serve Guernsey County families.

On behalf of the Guernsey County CARES Network, thank you for the vital work you do each day. We are grateful for your partnership and look forward to continuing to build a stronger, more connected network of support for our community.

Sincerely,

Lori Robson
